Let the clouds rain down on the Just One!

The gospel is a lesson in sharing. Knowing that she will be the mother of the Savior, the first thing Mary does is to visit her cousin Elizabeth. She certainly wishes to be of service and provide companionship for Elizabeth who is also expecting her first child in her old age. But more than helping, Mary is sharing Jesus with her cousin.

Elizabeth must be anxious and fearful about the difficulties of childbearing in old age. Mary's presence gives comfort, consolation, and assurance. More, Mary has brought Jesus to her. Who could calm her fears and anxieties better than Jesus?

Indeed, what better gift can we give that share Jesus with other? People need our sympathy, our understanding, our listening ear, our presence, our trust. It is admirable if we can give these. Yet, far better it is to share Jesus with people in need.

God is always near us, within reach. God continually comes and visits. We meet him both in one who does good to us and in another who needs our assistance. He comes to help us especially when our cross seems too heavy, when we are in trouble, when we are down. Do we let him in? Do we make him feel he is welcome and needed?

God's Own Son

*As Mary rocks her baby boy
She's filled with sadness, filled with joy
She looks upon that tiny face
And sees the hope of every race.*

*Her heart is filled with a mother's glow
And she never wants to let him go.
She'll see him run and laugh and play
And longs to keep him safe each day.*

*His life won't be an easy one,
His destiny hard, as God's own Son.*

*Mary sees the miracles he'll perform,
The lepers healed and free from scorn.
The lame will walk, the blind will see.
She sees his love will set us free.*

*And then she sees him on a cross.
She feels his pain and feels our loss.
She knows his life must come to this.
She sheds a tear and gives a kiss.*

*His life won't be an easy one,
His destiny hard, as God's own Son.*

*So as Christmastime draws near
And we are all so "busy" here,
With shopping, baking, trees of green
Let's ask, what does this really mean?*

*Let's take a moment from the fuss,
And think of all their gifts to us:
A mother's love, a baby boy,
Peace and comfort, love and joy.*

*For he was born for everyone,
His destiny, God's only Son.*

YOUTH MINISTRY

On Monday, December 14th, 26 of our beautiful and precious youth had the privilege to serve, entertain and fellowship with those who are less fortunate. Our youth were overwhelmed with joy when the little ones joined them as they sang and danced to the holiday songs. One of our youths said "I realized now, not to take things for granted and cherish what I have today because tomorrow I might not have what I have today!"

Please join us at 10 a.m. for Mass on December 27th. Come and experience our Youth Choirs high energy worship!

Please pray for us that we continue to recognize GOD in our lives and let HIS love for us shine through.
