

Sixth Sunday In Ordinary Time February 14, 2010

Bring us your salvation, Lord!

“on the day they do so, rejoice and exult, for your reward shall be great in heaven.” In the company of His newly chosen apostles, and of the multitude, Jesus repeats, standing on the plain, a number of remarkable passages of the sermon he had before delivered, sitting on the mount. The four woes are addressed to four classes of people: those who worship wealth, those who are satisfied with their present life, those who live with present enjoyment, and those whose aim is human praise and adulation. Jesus blesses the poor and the hungry, the mourners, and the persecuted; he represents as miserable those who are rich, and full, and joyous, and applauded because generally prosperity is a sweet poison, and affliction a healing, though a bitter medicine. Let the though reconcile us to adversity, and awaken our caution when the world smiles upon us; when a plentiful table is spread before us, and our cup is flowing over; when our spirits are high; and we hear what we naturally love – praise from others. – the word in other words.

Pray for the Sick

May the Lord's healing and life-giving touch be upon those whose cross is too heavy to bear. Amen.

Christ the King School Journal

Blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord...

He is like a tree planted beside the waters that stretches out its roots to the stream. Jeremiah 17:7-8

Our Catholic Schools Week celebration was incredibly fun for our entire school community! An especially heart-warming event was our parent appreciation night held on Tuesday, February 2nd at 6:00 p.m. in the cafeteria. Each class was responsible for showing appreciation to their parents through song and dance! In addition, we invited St. Anthony Jr. Sr. High School's Band to provide dinner entertainment. They did a superb job under the direction of their band director Everett Yamashita.

Each year during Catholic Schools Week, individuals serving 20, 30, 40, 50...years of service to Catholic schools are recognized. This year we are proud to announce that Karen Nobriga, school aide celebrated 20 years of dedicated service to Christ the King School. We are sincerely grateful for your commitment to the philosophy and mission of our school, AND, we are proud to have you as a partner in spreading the Good News of our Lord Jesus Christ. Congratulations, Karen!

Registration for School Year 2010 – 2011 is well underway. Parents interested in having their children attend Christ the King School should call the school office at 877-6618 to request a registration packet.
