

Christ the King Church

MISSION STATEMENT

“Christ the King Parish is to “Go and Make Disciples” by welcoming all into our community: growing as Holy Disciples in formation through prayer, fellowship, and witnessing to God’s people.

April 21st, 2024
Fourth Sunday of Easter

PASTOR’S REFLECTION

"I am the Good Shepherd," says our Lord. As followers of Jesus, we are invited to be likewise, a good shepherd. Whether we think of it or not or whether we like it or not, we do shepherding in our lives. As a parent, teacher, relative, friend or companion we influence people for the better or the worse. Even children can be shepherds to their parents. Many fathers have looked into the eyes of their children and have seen a trust accorded them and has prevented them going astray. Even innocent questions that children ask their parents make the parents see the truth from which they have been hiding for a long time. A father wants to deserve the trust and respect of his children and in the process, he is led at times to the spring of life. When we send a birthday or Christmas card to our parents and mention the good things for which we are truly grateful, we have become shepherds to them. We give them strong encouragement to go on.

On the other hand, as parents, we do not give in to our children what they really like now but what they will need in the future and will be beneficial to their later happiness. We teach them to be responsible, to be caring for others, sharing the little they have, understanding, mercy, forgiveness and generosity.

70 Years

Sister Catherine Anthony Acain, CSJ

I remember with gratitude when Sisters Frances Margaret Darling and Annetta Gabriel made a special visit to my family home to brock the news that Sister Julie Marie and I wanted to enter the convent. I am grateful that my parents agreed to let us do so. I appreciate that it was a difficult "Yes" for them. It meant that both of us would be leaving home at the same time and going far away. I continue to be grateful to our CSJ Congregation and the communities of sisters who have been my support in religious life. I thank God for the many graces and support He has given me and continues to give me as I live out His call to religious life. ➡

Congratulations to Sister Catherine Acain who is celebrating her 70th year as a Sister of Saint Joseph. Mass and Renewal of Vows will be at the 5pm Mass on Saturday, May 4th, 2024. All are Welcomed to the reception after Mass in the Parish Hall. Potluck items are welcomed! Blessings to Sister Catherine for her dedication of teaching at Christ the King Church.

Domingo 28 de Abril del 2024. (V Semana de Pascua). Hermanas y hermanos, el vino verdadero es el que andamos buscando en los viñedos de la tierra pero que sólo podía venir del viñedo del cielo. Sangre de Cielo, amor de Cielo, alegría de Cielo, vida de Cielo. Esa es la ebriedad santa, el gozo sin mancha que nos regala Jesús. Nosotros estamos unidos a la vid. Recibimos su Sangre, su propia Sangre, que circula por nosotros y así nos comunica la vida divina. Podemos hacer cosas como las que hacía Jesús porque tenemos la vida de Jesús circulando en nuestras venas. Podemos entonces dar fruto, como los frutos que dio Jesús.

Nuestro Señor distingue entre los frutos "que permanecen" y los que no permanecen. Todo lo que no permanece indica en su fragilidad que está bajo el imperio de la muerte. No importa qué tan bella sea una flor si sólo va a saludarme un día para luego hundirse en la nada y dejar una estela de vacío.

Distingue también nuestro Señor entre los frutos "abundantes", propios de quien tiene vida porque le circula la sangre de la vida, y la esterilidad del que no tiene qué circule en su interior. Y ese es el veredicto que muchos padecen: nada les circula adentro. Su vida no tiene principio interior que anime, sino que son gobernados en todo desde el exterior, es decir, desde las apetencias que otros manipulan. De esa vida sin vida nos ha salvado Cristo, Señor de la vida. "Dar fruto", es lo que pide la segunda lectura de hoy: "no amemos solamente de palabra, sino con hechos y de verdad". Santa Catalina de Siena decía que las palabras son como hojas y que un árbol de sólo hojas no satisface al agricultor: se necesitan obras, frutos, hechos.

Pero la segunda lectura trae otro tema que nos edifica: el papel de la conciencia. Por un lado es verdad que la conciencia sirve de señal cuando no nos reprocha, pues "si nuestra conciencia no nos condena, podemos acercarnos a Dios con confianza, y lo que le pidamos lo recibiremos de él, porque cumplimos sus mandamientos y hacemos lo que le agrada". Por otra parte, la condenación que proviene de la conciencia no puede tomarse como un absoluto, "porque si ella nos condena, Dios es más grande que nuestra conciencia y conoce todas las cosas". Lo que debe pues hacer es obrar el bien y luego dejar todo juicio a Dios, "que es más grande que nuestra conciencia".

Feliz y bendecida V semana de Pascua.
