

Christ the King Church

MISSION STATEMENT

"Christ the King Parish is to "Go and Make Disciples" by welcoming all into our community: growing as Holy Disciples in formation through prayer, fellowship, and witnessing to God's people.

April 28th, 2024
Fifth Sunday of Easter

PASTOR'S REFLECTION

"...By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples." (Jn 15:8)
As followers of Jesus, we are expected to bear fruits. This is our mission. A parent bears fruit in his children and a teacher in her students. If we disappear from the face of the earth, will there be people who will miss us because we care for their problems, know how to listen to them, are loyal friends, thoughtful spouses, trustworthy employees, family-oriented parents or fair employers? Or will nobody notice our absence. What a tragedy it would be when you are absent, and people do not even care or notice. We will start to wonder if our presence has the same value to our family or community.

The fruits of the Holy Spirit which we obtain through our unity with the Lord bears fruit because of trimmings in our lives. Self-denial is an integral part of love. Joy asks at times to surrender pleasure.

Peace may demand we give way to others. Patience calls for consideration for people's mistakes. Goodness requires us to say "no" to evil. Faithfulness plays down a person's weaknesses and limitations. Gentleness means we do not just follow our instincts. Self-control selects what enhances relationships.

Pastor: Fr Efen A. Tomas, MS

70 Years

Sister Catherine Anthony Acain, CSJ

I remember with gratitude when Sisters Frances Margaret Darling and Annetta Gabriel made a special visit to my family home to break the news that Sister Julie Marie and I wanted to enter the convent. I am grateful that my parents agreed to let us do so. I appreciate that it was a difficult "Yes" for them. It meant that both of us would be leaving home at the same time and going far away. I continue to be grateful to our CSJ Congregation and the communities of sisters who have been my support in religious life. I thank God for the many graces and support He has given me and continues to give me as I live out His call to religious life. ➡

Congratulations to Sister Catherine Acain who is celebrating her 70th year as a Sister of Saint Joseph. Mass and Renewal of Vows will be at the 5pm Mass on Saturday, May 4th, 2024. All are Welcomed to the reception after Mass in the Parish Hall. Potluck items are welcomed! Blessings to Sister Catherine for her dedication of teaching at Christ the King Church.

Domingo 28 de Abril del 2024

(V Semana de Pascua).

Hermanas y hermanos, el vino verdadero es el que andamos buscando en los viñedos de la tierra pero que sólo podía venir del viñedo del cielo. Sangre de Cielo, amor de Cielo, alegría de Cielo, vida de Cielo. Esa es la ebriedad santa, el gozo sin mancha que nos regala Jesús. Nosotros estamos unidos a la vid. Recibimos su Sangre, su propia Sangre, que circula por nosotros y así nos comunica la vida divina. Podemos hacer cosas como las que hacía Jesús porque tenemos la vida de Jesús circulando en nuestras venas. Podemos entonces dar fruto, como los frutos que dio Jesús.

Nuestro Señor distingue entre los frutos "que permanecen" y los que no permanecen. Todo lo que no permanece indica en su fragilidad que está bajo el imperio de la muerte. No importa qué tan bella sea una flor si sólo va a saludarme un día para luego hundirse en la nada y dejar una estela de vacío.

Distingue también nuestro Señor entre los frutos "abundantes", propios de quien tiene vida porque le circula la sangre de la vida, y la esterilidad del que no tiene qué circule en su interior. Y ese es el veredicto que muchos padecen: nada les circula adentro. Su vida no tiene principio interior que anime, sino que son gobernados en todo desde el exterior, es decir, desde las apetencias que otros manipulan. De esa vida sin vida nos ha salvado Cristo, Señor de la vida. "Dar fruto", es lo que pide la segunda lectura de hoy: "no amemos solamente de palabra, sino con hechos y de verdad". Santa Catalina de Siena decía que las palabras son como hojas y que un árbol de sólo hojas no satisface al agricultor: se necesitan obras, frutos, hechos.

Pero la segunda lectura trae otro tema que nos edifica: el papel de la conciencia. Por un lado es verdad que la conciencia sirve de señal cuando no nos reprocha, pues "si nuestra conciencia no nos condena, podemos acercarnos a Dios con confianza, y lo que le pidamos lo recibiremos de él, porque cumplimos sus mandamientos y hacemos lo que le agrada". Por otra parte, la condenación que proviene de la conciencia no puede tomarse como un absoluto, "porque si ella nos condena, Dios es más grande que nuestra conciencia y conoce todas las cosas". Lo que debe pues hacer es obrar el bien y luego dejar todo juicio a Dios, "que es más grande que nuestra conciencia".

Feliz y bendecida V semana de Pascua.
